

Course

ATR 42-320

Course Description

Flight Performance and Flight Planning

The course is designed to AICC and SCORM standards and combines rich multimedia graphics with limited use of text, audio narration and a high degree of interactive elements. Lesson Objectives and Knowledge Checks complete each individual chapter.

Objective

Upon completion of this course the trainee will have an understanding and knowledge of the ATR 42 performance capabilities. He will know how to calculate performance requirements and will be able to perform the flight planning requirements.

Target Group

This training is recommended for Flight Crew Members and Flight Operations Officer.

Course Content

The course includes following topics:

- Introduction to the ATR 42
- Aircraft Limitations
- Speeds
- Power Setting
- Take Off
- Climb
- Cruise
- Holding
- Descent and Approach
- Landing and Go Around
- One engine inoperative
- General Flight Planning requirements
- Flight levels and altitudes
- Special operation

The course content can also be used as recurrent training.

Course Duration

18 hours

infoWERK Medien & Technik GmbH

Egger-Lienz-Str. 130
A - 6020 Innsbruck | Austria
Phone: +43 (0)5238 52099 - 0
Fax: +43 (0)5238 52099 - 40

E-Mail: info@infowerk.systems

Website: www.infowerk.systems

Facebook: www.facebook.at/infowerk

YouTube: www.youtube.com/InfowerkZirl

InfowerkZirl

